MESSAGE FROM GOD’S WORD

“Running To Win”
Philippians 3:7-14

In Paul’s writings, he often uses illustrations from the world around him to communicate the truths concerning the Christian life. He uses the “armed forces” - “put on the whole armor of God.” He uses “architecture” - “You are the temple of God.” He uses “agriculture” - “You are God’s cultivated field,” and “whatever a man sows that shall he also reap.” He also uses “athletics” - “in a race all run but only one wins the prize, so run that you may obtain (win).”

In the passage we are examining today, Paul compares the Christian life to a foot race. In the race to become the greatest Christian we can be, we must forget, focus and finish. May we run with endurance the race set before us.

In this Scripture, Paul sees himself as an accountant who traded everything in his past to embrace Jesus Christ, the true value in life. In his future he views himself as an alien - “our citizenship is in heaven.” Therefore, he lived not for this world but for the world which is coming. In the present, he is the athlete whose goal is to finish his purpose and please his Master, Jesus Christ!

I. Forgetting your past

- A. The negatives - no longer negatively affected
- B. The positives - no resting on your laurels

II. Focusing on your present

- A. Reaching forth
- B. Setting goals
- C. Competing properly

III. Finishing in His presence (2 Timothy 4:6-8)

- A. I fought
- B. I finished
- C. I am finally home

Love Came Down Outreach Ministry will have a brief volunteer meeting in the Sanctuary after the service today. If you are interested in helping in this outreach, please contact Chris Howard at 270-314-8014, or meet with our team today.

KIDS

Kids will be dismissed to Kids Church following the musical portion of our service. They will return to the front pew toward the end of the service. Sign in your child with the QR code.

We taking our party outdoors, October 26, from 5:30-7:30! Sign up now to host a trunk, enter the chili cook-off or be a judge!

FAMILY LIFE

This year marks James and Susan's 25th Anniversary of pastoral ministry at our church. To honor this milestone, we are planning a special worship service to celebrate James and Susan, featuring special music and tributes to their ministry. Join us Sunday, November 2, 2025, at 9am, to honor and worship with the Weddings. You'll have more opportunities to express your appreciation to them during the meal.

Following the service and Sunday School, we'll celebrate James and Susan with a fellowship meal in the CLC. The church will provide Fried Chicken, Chicken Strips, Hashbrown Casserole, Rolls, Coconut Pie, Cobblers and Ice Cream Machine. Please bring potluck to go with the meal.
